

2010 Rule Changes

The following rule changes were passed at the ICA Convention held during the ICA Finals on October 30-31, 2009.

Barrel Racing:

Amend rule 16, pg 55 of the 2008 ICA Rulebook to read: When a rake is required, it will occur after the 12th contestant according to the draw.

Amend rule 17, pg 55 of the 2008 ICA Rulebook to read: There will be no assistance to WBR horses once they are past the entrance gate. Violation of this rule will be cause for disqualification.

Judges and Timers:

Replace rule 7, pg 11 to read: All ICA approved rodeos will have judges and timers assigned by the ICA judging director in cooperation with the ICA Board of Directors.

Amend Rule 12, pg 21 to read: The ~~rodeo committees~~ judging director working in cooperation with the ICA Board of Directors shall select the judges and timers from those that are cardholders in good standing and have annually attended a judge's school.

Replace rule 13, pg 21 to read: Committees may request specific judges and timers through the judging director.

Rule 2, page 20: add: Judges will be paid by the ICA office once the Judges Report is filed with the judging director.

BREAKAWAY ROPING

Amend rule 2 pg 53 of the 2008 ICA Rulebook to read: At all ICA prime rodeos the ICA secretary shall provide to the committee secretary, string for the breakaway. The string shall be nylon based. Contestants MUST use the string provided.

Amend rule 12 pg 54 of the 2008 ICA Rulebook to read: All breakaway calves must be uniform in size and of like breed without the use of dairy cattle (jerseys & holsteins). A MINIMUM WEIGHT OF 200 LBS. and a maximum weight of 400 lbs. with a maximum of a 50 lb variation in weight. There will be a $50 fine per animal not in compliance.

Amend rule 6, pg 53 of the 2008 ICA Rulebook to read: Horns are to be no longer than 2 inches from the base of the horn. There will be a $50 fine for each animal not in compliance.

New Rule for Breakaway: The string shall be attached to the very end of the rope and tied securely to the saddle horn. The rope shall be tied well enough to the saddle horn, with string, to allow a tug by the barrier judge or his appointee and not break. The barrier judge or his appointee may request rope to be tied before permitting contestant to compete.

DRAWING TIMED EVENT CATTLE

Amend rule 9A pg 29 of the 2008 ICA Rulebook to read: Definition of desirable cattle is as follows: must meet with all weight and horn limitations, must be of like or similar breed. If cattle do not meet the definition of desirable and they are still placed in the draw the stock contractor will be fined $50 for each animal that does not match per run.
