

Charley Stovner Memorial Rookie Award

Charley Stovner loved helping young competitors get started in the sport of rodeo. He also believed in finishing what you started and learning along the way.

Our family has set up an $500.00 annual award for ICA rookie competitors in his memory. We are honor to have Usher Brand donating the annual buckle to the recipient.

Requirements for applicants

- Must be an ICA rookie (rough stock or timed event) in good standing with the ICA
Must enter the Cambridge Rodeo

Please submit a letter to charleysaward@gmail.com
before July 15, 2018

- Explaining your rodeo goals and aspirations
- Include your current educational background\level and future education goals
- Tell us about your other interests i.e.: volunteering

Our family will consider each letter of application for qualities that Charley would have supported.

I can answer questions via email. The award will be presented at the Cambridge Rodeo
