

Stovner Family Rookie Award Application

In Memory of Charley Stovner

The Stovner Family Rookie Award is a Buckle, made and donated by Usher Brand Buckles, given every year to an ICA Rookie that personifies the ideals of competition, sportsmanship, and community that Charley Stovner sought to live by in the rodeo arena and in his personal life. Charley Stovner also loved helping young competitors get started in the sport of rodeo. In his memory, a cash prize of $500 is also presented along with the buckle.

- All applicants must be card holding ICA Rookies.
- All applicants must enter and compete at the Adams County Rodeo in Council, Idaho.
- All applications must submitted before July 10th.
- The Stovner family will announce the recipient of the award at a presentation ceremony during the Adams County Rodeo.
- If you have any questions, please feel free to email charleysaward@gmail.com.

Please respond to each of the following questions in 1-2 paragraphs in a separate document and submit it to charleysaward@gmail.com before July 10th.

1.) What kind of leadership roles have you taken on in or outside of rodeo?

- Please feel free to write about more than one role or to focus on one role that you are passionate about.
- These roles may include volunteering or leadership through a job/career, helping your fellow competitors, or roles in your family/local community.

2.) What does sportsmanship mean to you?

- This may include examples of how you have helped fellow competitors in the past or other examples of how you seek to be a good sportsman in and around the arena

3.) What are your life and/or career goals outside the arena?

- This may include how you see your role in promoting and building the sport of rodeo. -You may also choose to include your goals for college/other continuing education/skill training.

4.) How have you sought to be a better competitor in your Rodeo Career so far?

- Please also include how you plan to use the money to pursue your rodeo goals if you are awarded the scholarship.

5.) Is there anything else you would like us to know about you?